Lent 2021

Dear Parishioners,

They have no wine.

In St. John's Gospel we read how at the start of Jesus public ministry he is present at a wedding in Cana. The Gospel has a memorable conversation between Jesus and his mother. She points to the need of the couple, and Jesus, with an abundance of grace, takes care of it. How often our own spiritual life works like this, intercession followed by divine fulfillment. We also do not miss the fact that even in his miracles Jesus relies on others to play a part. The servants filled the large jars with the water that becomes wine. Our assistance with the needs of others is part of the divine plan to answer the prayers of those in need. Lent is always a preeminent time for charitable works. One such important work to support is our Diocesan Annual Campaign.

We have the tradition at Holy Name of Jesus Parish of starting Lent with our annual Eucharistic devotions. Like many other things this year we will need to modify the devotion. We will have an evening of Eucharistic Devotion on Tuesday, February 23rd. We will live stream this for folks at home.

For many of our parishioners who are vulnerable and need to be cautious we have tried to include you with a weekly live streamed Mass on Sunday, and will also be arranging other devotions for your spiritual growth on our Facebook page and website. To help us keep in touch we would invite you to provide your e-mail so we can contact you on a more sustained basis. There is a form presently on our website at www.HolyNameOfJesus.com/Parish for your convenience.

Please know of my personal gratitude for your consistent goodness to Holy Name of Jesus Parish and to the Church. May our Lord bless you and your family with a holy and spirit filled journey with our Lord during this Lenten season.

Sincerely yours,

Fr. Edward J. Quinlan
Pastor
