TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel. In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES 2020-2021

In order to maintain the health and safety of your child, Religious Education Classes for Grades 1 to 8 will be held online from September 20 until January 10. At that time we will re-evaluate if we are able to resume in person classes.

Classes will be held every Sunday, 9:05-10:05 a.m. The teacher will send the class work or have a Zoom Meeting with your child during that time. The Religion book does have an online component that the teachers may be using. After Labor Day, your child's teacher will contact you to explain the class and also to get the appropriate contact information.

Each student will receive a book. These books may be picked up in the School Connector on September 13 from 9:00-10:00 a.m., September 17 from 6:00-7:00 p.m., or September 19 from 10:30-11:30 a.m. If these times are not convenient, please contact Sister Rita for a mutual time for pick-up. There is a $20 fee. This fee may be paid at the time of pick up. Registration form for First Grade and new students can be found at www.holynameofjesus.com/parish/religious-education-program.
