SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Mark's description of the appearance of John the Baptist highlights John's continuity with the Jewish prophetic tradition. Mark combines quotations from the Old Testament books of Malachi, Isaiah, and Exodus. Mark's description of John as an ascetic, living in the desert, clothed in camel hair, and eating locusts and wild honey, is reminiscent of the description of the prophet Elijah found in Second Kings. The people of Judea and Jerusalem flock to him, listening to his message of repentance and forgiveness; they also come to him to be baptized. Mark's Gospel is clear, however, that John the Baptist's role is only to prepare the way for another who will come, one who is greater than John.

Many scholars believe that the Gospels reflect the tension that likely existed between followers of John the Baptist and disciples of Jesus. Each of the four Evangelists report on John's preaching and baptizing, and they each emphasize the importance of Jesus' baptism by John. The four Gospels also explain that John was sent to preach in preparation for another. In the Gospel of Luke, the question is raised as to whether John the Baptist was himself the Messiah. Just as in today's Gospel, however, John speaks quite explicitly that the Messiah was to come after him.

In today's Gospel we hear John the Baptist contrast his baptism of repentance with the baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John says that he has baptized with water, but that the one who is to come will baptize with the Holy Spirit. John's baptism was not yet a Christian baptism, but a preparation for the Sacrament of Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

John the Baptist is presented to us as a model during Advent. We, too, are called upon to prepare a way for the Lord. Like John the Baptist, we are messengers in service to one who is greater than we are. Our Baptism commissions us to call others to life as disciples of Jesus.

2020 DIOCESAN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN
 “Rooted in Faith”

Thank you to all who have supported the Diocesan Annual Campaign! Holy Name of Jesus has been assessed $261,900 this year; we are currently about $38,000 away from fulfilling our assessment. In recent years, our parish has been successful in completing the Diocesan Annual Campaign without relying on our general parish funds. We hope you will consider donating to this important cause as you plan your end of year giving. Collectively, over 90 programs benefit from your generosity. Our Diocese is committed to continuing the work of these important ministries and programs throughout Central PA. Gifts can be made through the Diocesan website using a credit or debit card. You even have the ability to donate stocks and bonds directly to the Diocese. Please be assured that 93% of your gift will be used to directly fund these charitable programs. This campaign DOES NOT fund individual parishes. It DOES NOT provide financial support for priests on administrative leave or legal settlements. Please be aware that any funds collected in excess of our goal will be returned to Holy Name of Jesus. In the past, our parish has shown that by working together, we can be successful in meeting all of our financial commitments. Thank you for your time and devotion to our parish.
