Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum—three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today's Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they blessed God and shouted "Hosanna!"

At the Liturgy of the Word on Palm Sunday, the events of Jesus' passion are proclaimed in their entirety. In Lectionary Cycle B, we read the passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Mark.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' passion and death are presented as the consequence of the tension between the Jewish authorities and Jesus that had been building throughout his public ministry. This tension reached its breaking point when Jesus drove the merchants and moneychangers from the Temple.

When Jesus was arrested and brought before the Sanhedrin he was charged with blasphemy, citing his threat to the Temple. When he was brought before Pilate, however, the religious authorities presented his crime as a political one, charging that Jesus claimed to be king of the Jews.

In Mark's Gospel, Jesus' disciples are rarely models of faith and do little to invoke confidence in their capacity to continue his ministry after his death. They fare no better in Mark's narrative of Jesus' passion and death. At the Last Supper, the disciples insisted that none among them would betray Jesus.

Throughout this Gospel, Mark challenges the reader to consider the claim with which the Gospel begins: Jesus is the Son of God. In Mark's telling of the passion narrative, Jesus understood his death to have been preordained, and he accepted this death in obedience to God's will.

During Holy Week, we prayerfully remember the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son.

2021 DIOCESAN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN – 'FAITH ALIVE'

Keeping our Faith Alive during this unusual time was difficult due to social distancing and many other restrictions. When churches closed and we lost our places of worship, it was with much perseverance and dedication that technology was instituted to allow Catholic Mass to be livestreamed via Facebook and other media platforms. The challenge of living out our faith became just that – a challenge. It is no wonder that Bishop Gainer has chosen Faith Alive as this year's theme for the Annual Campaign. Many other programs throughout the Diocese, including education, were able to utilize these methods to seamlessly continue the daily rituals for so many. We are grateful to those who helped keep Faith Alive in our hearts and minds by bringing God to us in these special ways.

Many of you have received the 2020 Impact Report from our Diocese as well as the 2021 Letter from Bishop Gainer about the Diocesan Annual Campaign. The positive impact from your generous contributions enabled many ministries and programs to continue their mission during this year. Financial support for the Diocesan Annual Campaign allowed parishes to help with evangelization efforts and sacramental preparation via Zoom calls, social media, and online giving. Those who benefited from the Campaign included over 53,000 meals served to the hungry, increased enrollment in 16 Catholic schools, over 2,000 clients served by Catholic Charities, as well as over 2,000 attendees of virtual conferences. Your commitment to this annual Appeal is a symbol of your living faith, a faith that is vibrant in our communities, our schools, our churches, and our families.

Holy Name of Jesus has been assessed $261,900 this year. This amount has remained the same since 2019. In recent years, our parish has been successful in meeting this commitment without relying on our general parish funds. As a result, more money has been available to meet our everyday budgeted expenses. To help our parish budget for this assessment, we encourage you to kindly match your gift from last year. Please consider making your donation or pledge during the season of Lent.

Our parish provides several methods for giving. Options include a single gift or a pledge to space your gift throughout the year. Additionally, you can make your gift or pledge on the Diocesan website using a credit or debit card. You even have the ability to donate investments directly to the Diocese. Please be aware that any funds collected in excess of the goal will be returned to Holy Name of Jesus. We ask that you prayerfully consider your gift to the 2021 Diocesan Annual Campaign as a reflection of your faith and as thanksgiving for God's continued blessings in your life. May God continue to bless you and keep your Faith Alive.
