SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

This chapter of John's Gospel comes at the conclusion of Jesus' farewell discourse delivered to the disciples at the Last Supper. This entire chapter is a prayer by Jesus, commending himself to the Father and expressing his care and concern for his disciples. At the end of this prayer, Jesus and his disciples depart for the garden, and Jesus is arrested. Several important themes appear in this prayer. First, Jesus' prayer reaffirms the complete union between himself and the Father. Throughout John's Gospel, Jesus has been presented as the one who preexisted with the Father and as the one sent by the Father to do his work on earth. In today's reading, we hear Jesus include all his disciples in this union with the Father. We are reminded that Christ is the source of Christian unity. Through Christ, we are united with one another and with God Our Father. In this prayer, Jesus describes part of his mission in the language of protection. He has protected those who were given to him by the Father. In this we hear echoes of the dualism that is reflected throughout John's Gospel. Beginning with the opening chapter, the Evangelist John has presented Jesus' mission on earth in the context of a cosmic struggle between good and evil, represented by light and darkness. In Jesus' presence, his disciples have been protected from Satan. Now that Jesus is returning to the Father, he prays that his disciples will continue to be protected from the evil one. We can't help but note here the echoes of the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples, the Lord's Prayer.

We also see in this chapter the distinction found in John's Gospel between the world and the disciples. The disciples are in the world, but they do not belong to the world. Yet like Jesus, they are sent into the world for the world's salvation. As Jesus' teaching and ministry was a source of consternation for some, Jesus knows that the world may not accept his disciples with open arms. Again, we hear echoes of John's theme that salvation is worked out through the cosmic battle between light and darkness. The world, according to John, prefers the darkness. Yet the light will not be overcome by the darkness. Reading this prayer of Jesus during the Easter Season, through the lens of his Resurrection, we know that the light of Christ has overcome the darkness of sin and death in our world.

THAT MAN IS YOU! The inspirational men's program That Man Is You has begun its spring session. TMIY combines 30 minute video presentations led by leading Catholic teachers with small group discussions to help men strengthen their faith. The spring videos include talks by Dr. Scott Hahn, Dr. Mark Miravalle, and Steve Bollman, the founder of TMIY. Meetings start at 7:00 a.m. and end promptly at 8:00 a.m. every Saturday in St. Bernardine Hall. All men of the parish are invited!

NEW PRO-LIFE INITIATIVE - Beginning in the month of May, Holy Name of Jesus will begin an ongoing collection of diapers to help support God's poor families through area organizations and the new mothers at Lourdeshouse Maternity Home. There will be donation boxes at both sides of the front entrance to the church. Your donations of new, sealed packages of diapers may be placed in these boxes as well as any current diaper coupons. All sizes of children's diapers will be accepted; please do not donate adult sizes.

HOLY NAME OF JESUS TRAVELING CHALICE - Each week, we ask that a parishioner or family sign up to take the Chalice home, put it in a prominent place and pray and talk about vocations (priesthood, consecrated life and marriage). Prayers will be included and you can include your own prayers! Chalice may be picked up and dropped off the chalice at the weekend

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS - The Knights of Columbus Council #14081 are a faithful and proud group of men serving our parish and community. If you have a desire for camaraderie and the need to serve others, contact Gary Smith, Membership Director, at 717-510-8482 or visit www.KofC.org/joinus.
