THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person.

Jairus is described as a synagogue official, a man of considerable standing in the Jewish community. Distraught over his daughter's poor health, he approaches Jesus and asks him to heal her.

As Jesus leaves with Jairus, Mark describes a second person who seeks healing from Jesus, a woman with a hemorrhage. This woman secretly touches Jesus from behind and is immediately cured. In response, Jesus turns and asks who touched him. The woman could have remained anonymous, yet at Jesus' question she steps forward and acknowledges what she has done. Jesus responds by acknowledging her as a model of faith and sends her away in peace.

At this point, we can imagine Jairus's impatience with Jesus; his daughter is dying and Jesus hasn't helped him yet. As if to build a sense of urgency, messengers suddenly arrive and confirm Jairus's worst fear: his daughter has died. Jesus curiously ignores their message and reassures Jairus. Jesus enters the room of the dead girl, takes her by the hand, and instructs her to arise. Jairus's faith in Jesus has not been in vain; his daughter is restored to life.

The contrasts between Jairus and the woman with the hemorrhage are stark and revealing. One is a man, the other is a woman. One is a public official, an important person in the community. The other is a woman who has lost everything to find a cure to a condition that separated her from the community. One approaches Jesus publicly. The other approaches Jesus secretly. Yet in each case, faith leads them to seek out Jesus in their time of need.

The Gospel concludes with Jesus' instructions to remain silent about this miracle. This is typical of Mark's Gospel and is sometimes referred to as the messianic secret. Each individual must make his or her own act of faith in affirming Jesus as God's Son.

A Hearty Thanks!

Our Open House for the new residence, held last Sunday, was a wonderful day for our parish. Many parishioners stopped by to see our new place. I am especially appreciative to our Council of Catholic Women for providing refreshments and our Knights of Columbus for helping with tours. I am also grateful to Mrs. Christina Lacey who provided an eye for decoration and furnishing as well as coordinating the Open House event. I am hopeful that this residence will not only be a handsome addition to our parish campus, but provide a nice living space for the parish priests and visitors for many years to come.

- Fr. Quinlan

HOLY NAME OF JESUS TRAVELING CHALICE - Each week, we ask that a parishioner or family sign up to take the Chalice home, put it in a prominent place and pray and talk about vocations (priesthood, consecrated life and marriage). Prayers will be included and you can include your own prayers! Chalice may be picked up and dropped off at the weekend Mass that you and/or your family attend. To sign up, please contact Father Matt at frmcannon@hbgdiocese.org or 717-652-4211.

ANNUAL MEN'S RETREAT - Make your reservation for the 43rd Annual Men's Retreat (sponsored by Corpus Christi Parish) to be held July 30 to August 1 at Mount Saint Mary's University in Emmitsburg, Maryland. This retreat provides a spiritual experience for Catholic men to reconnect with God. The weekend will consist of five conferences, Mass, Stations of the Cross, Scriptural Rosary, Confessions, and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. Registration is limited to 150 men on a first come, first serve basis. Deposit of $60 required for reservation; balance of $130 due at registration on July 30. Anyone 16+ is welcome to volunteer for full-time or part-time duties; there is a particular need for adult volunteers who are able to spend the night. All volunteers are required to complete the Diocesan Clearance process and to provide proof of full vaccination from the COVID-19 virus (limited vaccination waivers may be granted). Attendance at a brief training session is also required. There is no cost to volunteers; all meals, events, campground activities, etc. are included. Deadline for expressing volunteer interest is June 30. If you are not able to volunteer but wish to support this special ministry, your prayers, financial generosity or simply sharing this volunteer solicitation with someone you think might be interested all make a significant, positive difference and are greatly appreciated. Checks should be made payable to the Diocese of Harrisburg with Camp Kirchenwald in the memo line.
