FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In this Gospel, we learn some interesting details about Jesus and his early life. Jesus' kinfolk know him to be a carpenter, an artisan who works in wood, stone, and metal. He probably learned this trade from his father. Family members of Jesus are also named. Mark describes Jesus as the son of Mary, which is an unusual designation. Adult males were more typically identified with the name of their fathers. It is unclear why Mark deviates from this custom.

Brothers and sisters of Jesus are also named. Scholars are divided on how to interpret this. As Catholics, we believe that Mary was and remained always a virgin, thus we do not believe that this Gospel refers to other children of Mary. Some have suggested that these family members might be Joseph's children from a previous marriage, but there is little evidence to support this. Others explain this reference by noting that the words brother and sister were often used to refer to other types of relatives, including cousins, nieces, and nephews.

This Gospel tells us that Jesus is hampered from performing miracles in Nazareth because of the people's lack of faith. Jesus is said to be surprised by this. He did not predict or foresee this rejection. In this detail we find a description of the very human side of Jesus.

This passage unfolds a continuing theme of Mark's Gospel: Who is Jesus? His kinfolk in Nazareth might know the carpenter, the son of Mary, but they do not know Jesus, the Son of God. Mark is foreshadowing Jesus' rejection by his own people, the people of Israel. He is also reflecting on and trying to explain the situation of the community for which he wrote. While many of the first Christians were Jewish, Christianity took hold and flourished in the Gentile community. Mark's community was mostly a Gentile community, who may have been experiencing persecution. By showing that Jesus himself was rejected, Mark consoles and reassures his first readers. He also prepares us to accept this possible consequence of Christian discipleship.

A Hearty Thanks!

Our Open House for the new residence, held June 20, was a wonderful day for our parish. Many parishioners stopped by to see our new place. I am especially appreciative to our Council of Catholic Women for providing refreshments and our Knights of Columbus for helping with tours. I am also grateful to Mrs. Christina Lacey who provided an eye for decoration and furnishing as well as coordinating the Open House event. I am hopeful that this residence will not only be a handsome addition to our parish campus, but provide a nice living space for the parish priests and visitors for many years to come.

- Fr. Quinlan

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 14081 FOOD FOR FAMILIES COLLECTION

The Knights of Columbus have closed the books on its 2020-21 fiscal year and we are proud to announce that our Food for Families campaign for the year has been another rousing success. We collected and distributed a total of 24,500 pounds of food to needy families. Despite the Covid-19 restrictions, we exceeded last year's collection by nearly 2000 lbs. The recipients of our collection efforts were: Saint Francis of Assisi Food Pantry; Race Track Chaplaincy of Central PA at Penn National Race Track; the Silence of Mary Home; and the HNJ St. Vincent de Paul Society Christmas Giveaway.

The Food for Families Program would not be the success that it is without the generous contributions of the Holy Name of Jesus Parish Community. The Knights of Columbus express our heartfelt gratitude to all the families of our parish for the repeated support we have received through the years, especially during these trying times of the pandemic.

The next Knights of Columbus Food for Families collection date will take place before and after all Masses the weekend of July 10 & 11. The trailer will be set up between the school and the church entrance. Canned goods can also be placed in our wagon that is situated on the opposite side of the church. The collection in July will be distributed to the Race Track Food Bank at Penn National Race Track.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS - The Knights of Columbus Council #14081 are a faithful and proud group of men serving our parish and community. If you have a desire for camaraderie and the need to serve others, contact Gary Smith, Membership Director, at 717-510-8482 or visit www.KofC.org/joinus.
