THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The context for today's Gospel continues to be mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish authorities. Mark reports some of Jesus' teaching in the Temple area in today's reading and in the preceding verses not included in our Lectionary sequence. In the first part of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus warn the crowds not to follow the example of the scribes in seeking honor and attention from others. It is important to recall that Mark indicates that Jesus taught these things while in the vicinity of the Temple in Jerusalem. Mark is setting the stage for Jesus' passion.

Jesus then observes how Jewish pilgrims are making their contributions to the temple treasury. The Temple in Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship in the time of Jesus. It was expected that observant Jews would make pilgrimages to the Temple to offer prayer and sacrifices. Pilgrims were also expected to make a financial contribution to the temple treasury.

As we would expect to be the case, Jesus observes that those who were rich contributed large sums to the treasury. Those with less means made smaller contributions. A similar situation exists in most of our parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions—two coins of little value. Jesus upholds the poor widow's offering for his disciples' consideration, commending her because her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus.

To give from our livelihood is not only an act of generosity, it is also an act of trust in God. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us. Jesus himself demonstrates the ultimate act of generosity and trust in God as he gives his life for us on the cross.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

DIOCESAN ANNUAL CAMPAIGN SURVEY - We want to hear from you! The Diocese is conducting a brief, anonymous survey about the Diocesan Annual Campaign (DAC) and we need your feedback. This survey should take no longer than 15 minutes to complete and can be completed online or via hard copy (please contact your parish office for a paper version). All those wishing to participate are asked to complete the survey by November 30. The online survey can be found at <https://bit.ly/3jplQfO>. Thank you in advance for your participation!

FISHER OF MEN - Join us in supporting the seminarians of the Diocese of Harrisburg through our Fishers of Men event. Although we are not able to host our annual dinner again in 2021 due to the ongoing pandemic, the seminarians for the Diocese still need your support. In these challenging times, we must continue to provide a solid seminary formation for the abundant number of men responding to God's call. Please pray for our men in formation and if you are able, please consider a gift to financially support our seminarians' education. Gifts can be made securely online by visiting www.hbgdiocese.org. Thank you for your support!

CATECHETICAL CONFERENCE - All are invited to the Annual Diocesan Catechetical Conference on Saturday, November 13, at the Diocesan Center. The theme is Catechizing for Conversion. Great workshops with an outstanding lineup of speakers. Keynote speaker is Scott Sollom, Professor of Catechetics at Franciscan University. The day also includes Mass celebrated by Bishop Gainer, Confessions, Vendors, and lunch. In-Person and Virtual options available. Register at www.hbgdiocese.org/event/catechetical-conference/ by November 10.

VOCATIONS - Today begins Vocation Awareness Week! As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives! He calls some to marriage, some to the priesthood, and others to religious life or to live as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations—and teaching young people how to discern God's call—is a serious duty, but also a joyful one. During this week, please encourage the young people in your life—children, grandchildren, students, and friends—to be open if God calls them to priesthood or religious life. "Out of her poverty she has put in everything she had." Will you respond with generosity should the Lord choose you for priesthood or the consecrated life? Contact Rev. Matt Cannon (717-652-4211 or fmcannon@hbgdiocese.org) or Rev. Jonathan Sawicki (frjsawicki@hbgdiocese.org or 717-657-4804).
