SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

This week and next, our Gospel readings invite us to consider John the Baptist and his relationship to Jesus. John the Baptist appears in the tradition of the great prophets, preaching repentance and reform to the people of Israel. To affirm this, Luke quotes at length from the prophet Isaiah. John baptizes for repentance and for forgiveness of sins, preparing the way for God's salvation.

The three Synoptic Gospels—Mark, Matthew, and Luke—attest to the importance of the baptism of John in preparing for Jesus. Only the Gospel of Luke, however, extends the connection between these two men to their birth. The first two chapters of Luke's Gospel contain the Infancy Narrative, which tells about the births of John the Baptist and Jesus. These stories set the stage for the beginning of Jesus' public ministry in chapter 3.

The evangelist Luke is the author of the Gospel that bears his name, and he also wrote the Acts of the Apostles as a continuation of the story of Jesus and the Church. In these two works, Luke's sense of time and history emerges. He identifies three epochs of salvation history: the time before Christ, the time of Christ, and the time of the Church and the Holy Spirit. In today's Gospel reading, as elsewhere, John the Baptist is presented as the figure who bridges the time before Christ and prepares the way for Christ's own ministry.

In today's Gospel we also note Luke's attention to political and historical detail. Luke shows that salvation is for all people and situated in world events. Therefore, Luke lists the political and religious leaders at the time of John's appearance in the desert. Salvation is understood as God's breaking into this political and social history.

John's preaching of the coming of the Lord is a key theme of the Advent season. As John's message prepared the way for Jesus, we too are called to prepare ourselves for Jesus' coming. We respond to John's message by repentance and reform of our lives. We are also called to be prophets of Christ, who announce by our lives the coming of the Lord, as John did.

IHS ✠ AMEN

Congratulations

Holy Name of Jesus would like to announce that the construction of our new rectory is complete, and the debt for this project is completely Paid-In-Full. A sincere thank you to the parish for your support of the Capital Campaign. Holy Name of Jesus Parish has worked together to maintain a state-of-the-art campus to celebrate Mass and create a safe environment to educate our children. The Parish remains committed to its 5-year modernization goal. The remaining plan includes remodeling the business office, social hall/cafeteria, and church basement. This September marked the start of the third year of the Capital Campaign to raise $2 million for completion of all the projects. Currently, we have received approximately $850,000. The tentative plan is to complete the business office renovations this spring and possibly start the social hall/cafeteria project this summer. Thank you for your generous support!

AROUND THE DIOCESE

SPECIAL COLLECTION NEXT WEEK - Give in gratitude. Elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have offered their lives in service to others - educating the young, comforting the sick, and ministering to the less fortunate. Today, many are frail and need assistance. Your gift next week to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish nursing care, medications and more. Please give generously.

CHRISTMAS BAKE SALE will take place on Saturday, December 11, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at Saint Ann Byzantine Church (5408 Locust Lane, Harrisburg). Homemade rolls with walnut, poppy seed, or apricot filling will be sold for $10. Perohi, frozen by the dozen for $6. CATHOLIC CHARITIES COME AND SEE APPEAL - Because of the continuing challenges with the coronavirus pandemic, there will not be an in-person Catholic Charities Come and See Dinner this year. However, your support of this appeal is still very much needed. Donations to the Come and See Appeal raise important financial support for the Catholic Charities Homes for Healing - Evergreen House (for women recovering from addiction), Interfaith Shelter for Homeless Families, and Lourdeshouse Maternity Home. Secured online contributions can be made via the Catholic Charities website at www.cchbg.org. For more info, contact Christopher Meehan, Catholic Charities Director of Development, at cmeehan@cchbg.org or 717-657-4804 ext 284. Thank you for your generosity!
