THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

This Sunday's Gospel continues last week's focus on John the Baptist and his role in preparing the way for Christ. Recall that last week's reading described John's appearance in the desert and established his connection with the prophetic tradition of Israel. If we were to read Luke's Gospel continuously, we would learn about John the Baptist challenging the crowds who came to him and calling upon them to show evidence of their repentance. John tells his listeners that they cannot rely on their lineage as Israelites because children of Abraham can be raised up from stones. Repentance, rather, must be observable in one's actions. Here, Luke is continuing to set up two important themes of his Gospel message: the Christian faith is expressed in one's actions, and the call to salvation is extended to everyone, Jews and Gentiles.

In today's Gospel reading, the crowds ask John the Baptist for specifics. What evidence of repentance is required? John replies by naming concrete actions: crowds should share their food and cloaks; tax collectors should be just; soldiers should act fairly. The concern for justice is a hallmark of Luke's Gospel.

When the crowd begins to wonder if John the Baptist might be the Messiah, John interprets his baptism and makes it clear that his ministry is in preparation for the Messiah. John the Baptist knows his place and role in God's plan of salvation. By encouraging the crowd to act similarly in accordance with their stations in life, John's teaching suggests that each person has a role to play in God's salvation. It is the great mystery of our salvation that God permits and even asks for human cooperation in his divine plans.

The third Sunday of Advent is also called Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete is a Latin word that means "rejoice." This name is taken from the entrance antiphon for Sunday's Mass, which is also echoed in today's second reading from the Paul's letter to the Philippians. Some people mark this Sunday by lighting a pink candle instead of a purple one on their Advent wreath. It is a reminder that the Advent season is a season of joy because our salvation is already at hand.

AROUND THE DIOCESE

SPECIAL COLLECTION THIS WEEK - Give in gratitude. Elderly Catholic sisters, brothers, and religious order priests have offered their lives in service to others - educating the young, comforting the sick, and ministering to the less fortunate. Today, many are frail and need assistance. Your gift today to the Retirement Fund for Religious helps furnish nursing care, medications and more. Please give generously.

DONATIONS NEEDED - Interfaith Shelter for Homeless Families (a Catholic Charities residential program in suburban Harrisburg) is in need of laundry detergent, disposable masks, body/hand lotion, conditioner, and copy paper. Donations can be taken to the Diocesan Center (4800 Union Deposit Road in Harrisburg) or to the shelter (120 Willow Way in Harrisburg). Please call the shelter at 717-652-8740 prior to taking items to the facility. Thank you for your generosity!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES COME AND SEE APPEAL - Because of the continuing challenges with the coronavirus pandemic, there will not be an in-person Catholic Charities Come and See Dinner this year. However, your support of this appeal is still very much needed. Donations to the Come and See Appeal raise important financial support for the Catholic Charities Homes for Healing - Evergreen House (for women recovering from addiction), Interfaith Shelter for Homeless Families, and Lourdeshouse Maternity Home. Secured online contributions can be made via the Catholic Charities website at www.cchbg.org. For more info, contact Christopher Meehan, Catholic Charities Director of Development, at cmeehan@cchbg.org or 717-657-4804 ext 284. Thank you for your generosity!

RETRouvaille - Not willing to let go of your marriage? Many couples continue to struggle in a marriage but are not willing to give up on each other. There is hope. Retrouvaille is a program designed to help struggling marriages regain their health. It helps a husband and a wife rediscover or re-awaken the love, trust and commitment that originally brought them together. For more information about the January 28-30 weekend for couples, contact the registration team a retrouvaillehbg@gmail.com or 717-356-2185.

VOCATIONS - God chooses ordinary people to do extraordinary things. Are you being called by the Lord? Contact Rev. Matt Cannon (frmcannon@hbgdiocese.org or 717-652-4211) or Rev. Jonathan Sawicki (717-657-4804 ext. 282 or frjsawicki@hbgdiocese.org).

Congratulations

Holy Name of Jesus would like to announce that the construction of our new rectory is complete, and the debt for this project is completely Paid-In-Full. A sincere thank you to the parish for your support of the Capital Campaign. Holy Name of Jesus Parish has worked together to maintain a state-of-the-art campus to celebrate Mass and create a safe environment to educate our children. The Parish remains committed to its 5-year modernization goal. The remaining plan includes remodeling the business office, social hall/cafeteria, and church basement. This September marked the start of the third year of the Capital Campaign to raise $2 million for completion of all the projects. Currently, we have received approximately $850,000. The tentative plan is to complete the business office renovations this spring and possibly start the social hall/cafeteria project this summer. Thank you for your generous support!
