THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Today we celebrate the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. In today's Gospel, as in the other Gospel accounts of Jesus' baptism, we hear John the Baptist address the confusion of the people who thought that John might be the Messiah. In response, John contrasts the baptism that he performs with the Baptism that Jesus will inaugurate. John the Baptist says that he has baptized with water, but that someone will come and baptize with the Holy Spirit. The type of baptism that John performed was not yet a Christian Baptism; it was a preparation for Christian Baptism through which sins are forgiven and the gift of the Holy Spirit is received.

The baptism of Jesus is reported in each of the three Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. Clearly, it was an event of great significance for Jesus and for the early Christian community. The Evangelists Mark and Luke report the story from Jesus' perspective; the voice from heaven is addressed to Jesus. Compare this to Matthew's Gospel in which the voice from heaven speaks to everyone. In Luke, however, the Holy Spirit descends upon Jesus during his time of prayer after his baptism. Through his Gospel, Luke will show Jesus to be a person of prayer who withdraws regularly from the crowds and his disciples to pray to his Father.

The baptism of Jesus is considered a manifestation of God in Jesus, another "epiphany." On this, the last day of the Christmas season, our Gospel reveals to us Jesus' relation to God: the son of Mary and Joseph is also God's own Son. In Luke's Gospel, all three members of the Trinity are manifested here: God the Father in the voice, the Holy Spirit descending, and Jesus the Son. At the beginning of his Gospel, Luke is communicating to us important information about the identity of Jesus. In the verses that follow, Luke lists the genealogy of Jesus, tracing Jesus' ancestry back to the first person, Adam, who is also identified as the son of God. We, the children of Adam and Eve, are again made children of God through Baptism.

PARISH NEWS & ACTIVITIES

THANK YOU! Our 2021 Parish Christmas Giveaway, sponsored by the St. Vincent DePaul Society with support from the Knights of Columbus was another huge success. Over 275 bags of groceries (approx. 5800 lbs) were prepared for the poor of the parish and surrounding community and distributed to over 58 families on Saturday, December 18. We also distributed over 400 presents to the young children of the families. Each family was given at least 2 bags of groceries and gave out over 200 $15 gift certificates for meat purchases at Karn's Foods. At the end of the parish distribution, leftover groceries and presents were sent to the Food Bank at Penn National, the Interfaith Shelter, St. Francis Soup Kitchen and the Silence of Mary Home. Thank you to all parishioners who donated food, presents and time to this annual event! The Knights of Columbus would also like to recognize all the parishioners who supported the Knights monthly Canned Food Collection. Our collections for 2021 totaled over 3325 bags and 26,000 lbs of groceries. Our Knights Council is extremely grateful for the generosity of our parish community in making our service project such a rousing success each year! The next Knights of Columbus Canned Food Collection will take place the weekend of January 8 and 9. Please continue your generosity as we prepare to feed the hungry in our community in 2022.

Parish Update for 2022

I am so very grateful for the kindness of our parishioners. Repeatedly you have stepped up to meet the needs of our parish. Even now we are starting to recover from the pandemic as more return to active participation in the parish life. Understandably some do still need to be cautious with health concerns.

I want to give you an update on our capital projects. The first was the building of the new residence. This was completed in June and we promptly moved in. We had the opportunity for an open house for all to see this beautiful home for the parish priests. This past summer we did have four of us there for a bit as we had a seminarian for the summer and as well as a visit by Father Rossi. The original budget for the project was in the neighborhood of $1.2 million. Our final cost came in at $900,000 for everything from demolition, land development, utilities, building and some furnishings. We benefited with some very nice gifts of furnishings from parishioners who were downsizing. Both our architect Richard Mulá and our builder Triple Crown are to be congratulated for their excellent work.

We are now ready for the second project, the renovation of the former rectory for parish offices. As we looked at the building there are some areas that needed attention. The basement is filled with mold from years of bad drainage, the roof will need to be replaced and we will have some interior work to repurpose some of the former living quarters back into office and meeting rooms. That work will begin this month.

The third project will be the renovation of the school cafeteria/social hall. We hope to be able to look forward to this for the summer. Preliminary meetings on this will likely take place later this month.

Thanks to your generosity the new residence is fully paid for and we have the funds to begin the next.
