THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY & JOSEPH

Today we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family. This feast is part of the Christmas season, and we should place today's Gospel in the context of what Luke's Gospel tells us about the birth of Jesus. Luke has been answering the question "Who is Jesus?" through his stories of the births of John the Baptist and Jesus. Today's Gospel reading continues this theme. It has no parallel in the other Gospels and is the conclusion of Luke's Infancy Narrative.

Mary, Joseph, and Jesus are presented in this Gospel as a faithful Jewish family. They are participating in the annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, an event shared each year with family and friends. When Jesus is found, Luke describes him as seated in the Temple in the midst of the Jewish teachers. Although he is young, Jesus seems not to need teaching about his Jewish tradition. In his dialogue with these learned teachers, Jesus astounds them with his insight and understanding. Jesus is a child of Israel. His Father is God.

The dialogue between Mary and Jesus contains many references to family relationships. In fact, in this Gospel reading Mary and Joseph are never identified by name. Instead they are referred to by their relationship to Jesus. Ultimately, this emphasizes Luke's point about the identity of Jesus. When Mary and Joseph find Jesus in the Temple, they question Jesus and express their anxiety. Jesus replies in words that many have thought to be disrespectful. Jesus says that he was never lost; he was at home. Jesus is God's Son, and he is in his Father's house. Luke will continue to suggest that faith in Jesus establishes new family relationships as he describes Jesus' public ministry.

In Luke's Gospel, Mary's importance is even greater than her role as Jesus' mother. Mary is the first disciple and will be present with Jesus' disciples after his Resurrection at Pentecost.

But I think about you everyday.
So, Jesus...this is _____ Just checking in today.

"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

Congratulations

Holy Name of Jesus would like to announce that the construction of our new rectory is complete, and the debt for this project is completely Paid-In-Full. A sincere thank you to the parish for your support of the Capital Campaign. Holy Name of Jesus Parish has worked together to maintain a state-of-the-art campus to celebrate Mass and create a safe environment to educate our children. The Parish remains committed to its 5-year modernization goal. The remaining plan includes remodeling the business office, social hall/cafeteria, and church basement. This September marked the start of the third year of the Capital Campaign to raise $2 million for completion of all the projects. Currently, we have received approximately $850,000. The tentative plan is to complete the business office renovations this spring and possibly start the social hall/cafeteria project this summer. Thank you for your generous support!
