"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen. She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead.

Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.

PRAYERS FOR UKRAINE

Despise not our prayers in our needs, but deliver us from all

O most glorious Ever-Virgin Mary,

and present them to Your Son and our God, that for the sake of You, He enlighten and save our souls."

SON OF THE MOST HIGH

Synod of the Catholic Church

Pope Francis has invited the Church to engage in a Synod. This is a Greek term for a gathering of members of the Church to engage in theological, moral or pastoral discussion and has shaped the teaching of the Church throughout the ages. While historically a Synod was intended for Bishops, our Holy Father has extended the invitation to all members of the Church to engage in this conversation. Our parish held an evening of prayer and conversation in February. The main topics of these conversations are listed here:

- A concern for those members of the parish who are currently inactive and to seek ways to re-engage them. Reasons for inactivity may be many.
- A concern to continue the mission of evangelization to welcome new members to the Church.
- To build a deeper sense of community in the parish, especially through more family activities.
- Build a strong and vital youth ministry.
- Continue to provide opportunities for adult faith formation, especially helping those whose faith was limited to an elementary level education.
- Consider ways to engage parishioners more deeply in the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy.
- A concern for confusion in the public square that the Church teaching is not clear to many Catholics due to bad examples of public officials and lack of clarity from Church leadership.

These summaries will be sent to the diocese for incorporation into the larger reflection. Anyone who wishes to add a personal Synod reflection or concern may do so directly at the diocesan web site: <https://www.hbgdiocese.org/virtual-auditorium-for-the-synod-on-synodality/>
