CONFESSIONS

"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Today's Gospel again comes from the Gospel of John. Like last week, today we hear words spoken by Jesus before his death and Resurrection. Jesus is teaching at the Last Supper.

John's Gospel does not include an institution of the Eucharist narrative; instead, Jesus washes his disciples' feet. Immediately after, Jesus predicts his betrayal by Judas. Today's Gospel follows that prediction. It can be read as a continuing explanation of Jesus' act of washing his disciples' feet. It begins with the announcement that this is the moment when the Son of Man will be glorified. This theme continues throughout John's Passion. Jesus will be glorified in his death on the cross and in his Resurrection, and the disciples will glorify Jesus in the love they show.

John's Gospel does not present a sentimental view of love. This is a type of love that is shown in service and sacrifice. It is difficult to choose to love when faced with hatred and anger. Jesus tells the disciples that all will know that they are his disciples because of the love they show for one another. This description of the early Christian community will be repeated in the Acts of the Apostles: "See how they love one another." Christian love is the hallmark of Christianity. We see it lived in the witness of the martyrs. We see it in the example of the lives of the saints. We see it in the holy women and men who live and love daily, making small and large sacrifices for others.

Its 11pm, Do You Know Where Your Children Are?

This message would often run on the TV when I was growing up as a public service spot. It did prompt parents to think about what their children were up to on a Friday or Saturday night.

How much do you know about your child's school? Not 11pm, but weekdays between 8am and 3pm. What are they learning, and more importantly, what values are being communicated? Many of you are aware of the controversy in Florida where the legislature passed a law to prohibit children in grades K to 3 from being indoctrinated on matters of sexuality and sexual identity. The law places the responsibility for such formation at early ages on parents and not public school personnel. The Disney Corporation, of all things, has embarked on crusade against the law, prompting a reply from the legislature. How did we get here, that Disney, the family friendly entertainment company, thinks it's abhorrent to trust parents with the most basic elements of their own children's moral formation.

To understand, one must see what is taking place in education today. Colleges and Universities have become bastions of woke ideology, including all forms of sexual and gender confusion. No more boys and girls, it's all just in your mind and all fluid. We can be whatever we want to be. These same institutions are training teachers and have for generations. Just to give you an example of where some educators are at, there is a school district in Wisconsin where the staff is being trained to be on the lookout for transgendered students, yes in the earliest grades. They are to encourage the child to transition, but keep it secret from parents. The materials note: "parents must first earn the right to know their child's gender". You see, if parents are not supportive, then we educators must protect the child from them. This was not crazy San Francisco; it was in Eau Claire, Wisconsin.

If it is happening in Wisconsin, what about Harrisburg?
