CONFESSIONS

"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

Today, the second Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate a second solemnity, which marks our return to Ordinary Time. Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. At one time, this day was called Corpus Christi, Latin for "the Body of Christ." In the most recent revision of the liturgy, the name for this day is expanded to be a more complete reflection of our Eucharistic theology.

The feeding of the 5,000 is the only one of Jesus' miracles to appear in all four Gospels. Luke places it between Herod's question, "Who is this about whom I hear such things?" and Peter's response to Jesus' question about who he thought Jesus was: "You are the Messiah of God." In Luke the feeding is not the result of Jesus' compassion for the crowd but is instigated by the disciples. They wanted Jesus to send the crowd away to town. Instead Jesus tells the disciples to give them some food on their own.

The passage is meant to remind us of two feedings in the Old Testament: the feeding of the Israelites in the desert and Elisha's feeding of 100 people with 20 loaves. It is also connected to the institution of the Eucharist. As in the Last Supper accounts in Matthew, Mark, and Luke and in Paul's account in 1 Corinthians, Jesus takes bread, looks up to heaven, blesses the bread, breaks it, and then gives it to the disciples. In using this exact language, Luke is reminding his readers that in this miracle Jesus is doing more than feeding hungry people as God did for the Israelites and the prophet Elisha did as well. The bread he gives is his body, which he will continue to give as often as the community breaks bread in remembrance of him in the Eucharist.

Dear Holy Name of Jesus Families -

Has it already been 3 years?! Wow, that went by fast! I would like to thank all of you for your support and kindness as I prepare to move to St. Theresa Parish in New Cumberland.

When I first arrived as a newly ordained priest, my prayer to God was, "Help me to be the best priest that I can for the people I am called to serve at Holy Name." And did God sure answer that prayer and then some. I feel so blessed to have been able to be your Parochial Vicar and to celebrate the joy of Mass, Sacraments, and visiting your homes while creating countless memories. Thank you for leading me closer to Christ, and I pray and hope that I did or said something that led you closer to Him.

Thank you as well to Father Quinlan, Sister Rita and our parish & school staff for your support and guidance.

To the school children, please know how much I enjoyed coming to your classrooms to teach you about Jesus and how much he loves you. The greatest gift you all gave me is how at every meeting, you made me laugh and put a smile on my face. I will never forget how you were my "first kids".

Saying goodbye is never easy, but I take comfort in one of my favorite quotes: "Don't cry because it is over, smile because it happened." Thank you for giving me my start; you will always be in my heart. I love you all.

In Christ,
Father Matt Cannon
