SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The Gospel tells us that Jesus appeared to the disciples on several occasions after they discovered that his tomb was empty. Part of the mystery of Jesus' Resurrection is that he appeared to his disciples not as a spirit but in bodily form.

In John's Gospel, Mary of Magdala does not recognize Jesus until he speaks to her. In Luke's Gospel the disciples who meet Jesus on the road to Emmaus do not recognize him until he breaks bread with them. The resurrected Jesus had a physical presence, but the disciples couldn't recognize Jesus unless he allowed them to. His resurrected body, nonetheless, showed marks of his crucifixion.

From the readings such as today's Gospel, we also see that in his resurrected body, Jesus seems to be free of physical constraints. He appears to the disciples despite the fact that the doors were locked.

Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace and the gift of the Holy Spirit. In doing so, Jesus commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." During the meeting, Jesus also shows the integral connection between forgiveness of sins and the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The story of Thomas illustrates our Christian experience today: We are called to believe without seeing. In fact, all Christians after the first witnesses have been called to believe without seeing. Thomas' doubt is hardly surprising: human nature compelled him to want hard evidence that the Jesus who appeared to the disciples after his death was indeed the same Jesus who had been crucified. Thomas is given the opportunity to act on that desire. He is our witness that Jesus is really risen.

Our faith is based on the witness of the Church that has preceded us, beginning with Thomas and the first disciples. Through Baptism we receive the same Holy Spirit that Jesus brought to the first disciples. We are among those who are "blessed" because we believe without having seen.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

As quoted from St Faustina's diary, "The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My mercy." We will have a special celebration with Eucharistic adoration, Blessing of the image of Divine Mercy, Benediction and pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet on Sunday, April 16 at 3:00 p.m.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

The 4th Sunday of Easter is Good Shepherd Sunday, a day the Church calls upon our Lord under His title as the Good Shepherd. It also reminds us of the importance of encouraging vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. God calls each person to a state in life that serves both the Church and our larger community. Some to marriage, some to single life and some to a form of religious vocation. In our diocese we have been blessed with a significant number of men discerning the call to Priesthood. In recent years the influx has slowed considerably. I know that here have been many challenges with the pandemic and other distractions. It is time to raise our voices in prayer that those He is calling will hear and reply with joy. Please consider joining in the Holy Hours for Vocations on Saturday, April 29 from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Eucharistic adoration is a key moment for this prayer especially with the inescapable link between the Eucharist and the Priesthood.

THANK YOU! During the March Canned Food Collection by the Knights of Columbus, the parish hit a milestone number in our collection process: We received over 500,000 canned goods for donation for the hungry in the Harrisburg area. This milestone could not have been reached without the generosity of everyone who has contributed to this important effort. The Knights would like to thank our parish for their generous spirit of giving.

SAVE THE DATE - Please save the date for our annual HNJ Parish Baby Shower for Lourdeshouse! This year we have moved back to a weeknight!
