"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

When we read today's Gospel, we may be surprised to learn that these friends of Jesus could walk and converse with him at some length yet not recognize him. Again we discover that the risen Jesus is not always easily recognized. Cleopas and the other disciple walk with a person whom they believe to be a stranger; only later do they discover that the stranger is Jesus. We learn that the first community met and recognized Jesus in the breaking of the bread, just as we meet Jesus in the Eucharist.

We can imagine the feelings of the two disciples in today's reading. They are leaving their community in Jerusalem. Their friend Jesus has been crucified. Their hope is gone. They are trying to make sense of what has occurred, so that they can put the experience behind them.

Jesus himself approaches the two men, but they take him for a stranger. Jesus asks them what they are discussing. He invites them to share their experience and interpretation of his crucifixion and resurrection, citing Jewish scripture. In that encounter we find the model for our Liturgy of the Word-what we do each time we gather as a community for the Eucharist. We reflect upon our life experiences and interpret them in light of Scripture. We gather together to break open the Word of God.

In the next part of the story, we find a model for our Liturgy of the Eucharist. The disciples invite the stranger (Jesus) to stay with them. During the meal in which they share in the breaking of the bread, the disciples' eyes are opened; they recognize the stranger as Jesus. In the Eucharist too we share in the breaking of the bread and discover Jesus in our midst. Just as the disciples returned to Jerusalem to recount their experience to the other disciples, we too are sent from our Eucharistic gathering. Our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist compels us to share the story with others.

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

The 4th Sunday of Easter is Good Shepard Sunday, a day the Church calls upon our Lord under His title as the Good Shepherd. It also reminds us of the importance of encouraging vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life. God calls each person to a state in life that serves both the Church and our larger community. Some to marriage, some to single life and some to a form of religious vocation. In our diocese we have been blessed with a significant number of men discerning the call to Priesthood. In recent years the influx has slowed considerably. I know that here have been many challenges with the pandemic and other distractions. It is time to raise our voices in prayer that those He is calling will hear and reply with joy. Please consider joining in the Holy Hours for Vocations on Saturday, April 29 from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Eucharistic adoration is a key moment for this prayer especially with the inescapable link between the Eucharist and the Priesthood.

-Fr. Quinlan
