"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today we move ahead in our reading of Matthew's Gospel. If we were reading Matthew's entire Gospel, we would have read about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees about Jewish purity laws. Jesus argues that it is not what goes into us that makes us unclean; he is referring to the strict Jewish dietary rules. Instead our words and actions-what comes out of us- makes us unclean because they emerge from a heart that is unclean.

Knowing about Jesus' debate with the Pharisees helps us to understand today's Gospel. The woman, who is not Jewish, approaches Jesus, requesting that he heal her demon-possessed daughter. At first Jesus ignores her; he says nothing. The disciples ask Jesus to send her away, and Jesus agrees, remarking that he was sent to minister to the Jews alone.

The woman persists, paying homage to Jesus, and yet Jesus denies her request again. He even insults her, using a Jewish word of derision for Gentiles, "dog". But the woman cleverly turns Jesus' insult into an affirmation of faith. Only then does Jesus grant her request and heal her daughter.

Jesus' unresponsiveness to this woman may strike us as uncharacteristic or shocking. Yet in Matthew's Gospel, Jesus' ministry is directed primarily to the people of Israel. Just as Jesus was surprised by the faith expressed by the Canaanite woman, so too the first Christians were surprised that the Gentiles would receive the salvation God offered through Christ.

The faith that the Canaanite woman expressed is an affirmation of and confidence in God's abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.

At all Masses this weekend, parishioners will hear about the Diocese of Norwich Outreach to Haiti's mission. Funds support the families in the poverty-stricken area of Christ Roi (Christ the King) and throughout 14 twinned sister parishes in the Archdiocese of Port-au-Prince. Your gifts can help provide medical care, nutrition supplements and food, education scholarships, initiating small businesses and community development. Fr. Frank Rouleau lives in Port-au-Prince and serves as Chaplain & Director of Parish Twining for Outreach. He comes to share Christ's mission and invite you to be a part of our diocesan ministry. Our Haitian brothers and sisters are struggling with severe food shortages and political unrest; please pray for them. We thank you for your generosity to the 2023 Missionary Cooperative collection! For more information about this ministry and their programs, please visit www.OutreachToHaiti.org.

MAGNIFICAT

Fr. Sebastian White, OP was the presenter for the priests day of reflection in June and he stayed with us for the evening. I had the chance to have breakfast with him in the morning and had a fascinating chat on many things, including his work as editor of Magnificat. He has mentioned that he would be able to send some sample copies of Magnificat to the parish. They arrived and are for September. Please enjoy.
