CONFESSIONS

3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

"God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." (Philippians 2: 9 - 11)

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples what people are saying about his identity. The disciples indicate that most people believe that Jesus is a prophet of Israel. Then Jesus asks his disciples who they believe that he is. Simon Peter answers, identifying Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God.

Jesus commends Simon Peter for this profession of faith, indicating that this insight has come from God. Because of Simon Peter's response, Jesus calls him the "rock" upon which Jesus will build the Church. This is a word play on the name Peter, which is the Greek word for "rock." Peter is then given special authority by Jesus, a symbolic key to the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter will play an important role in the early Christian community as a spokesperson and a leader.

In today's Gospel, Peter's recognition of Jesus' identity is credited to a revelation by God. This will contrast sharply with Jesus' rebuke of Peter in next week's Gospel. When Peter rejects Jesus' prediction of his passion and death, Peter is said to no longer be thinking as God does but as humans do.

The use of the term church in today's Gospel is one of only three such occurrences in Matthew's Gospel. Peter in this Gospel is being credited as the foundation for the Church, a privilege granted to him because of his recognition of Jesus' identity. The Church continues to be grounded in the faith that Jesus Christ is Lord.

MAGNIFICAT

Fr. Sebastian White, OP was the presenter for the priests day of reflection in June and he stayed with us for the evening. I had the chance to have breakfast with him in the morning and had a fascinating chat on many things, including his work as editor of Magnificat. He has mentioned that he would be able to send some sample copies of Magnificat to the parish. They arrived and are for September. Please enjoy.

The Capital Campaign has entered into its final year. The parish goal is collect funding for the remaining two projects. The front façade of the Social Hall is the current project. This part of the Social Hall upgrade could not be completed last year due to constraints of the school calendar. The final project will be the construction of a small social hall in the basement of the Church for funeral luncheons and meetings. Please join fellow parishioners in supporting the campus improvements Thank you!

Back to School 2023

Last year we saw the Federal Government using the school lunch program to force schools to accept the Biden Administration's radical redefinition of gender or else send poor students away hungry. Where are we today?

The State of New Jersey is suing three school districts for the horror of putting into their local policy that they would notify parents if their child wishes to use a different name or gender in school. The state education office seems to think that parents cannot be trusted in such matters as they might not be as enlightened as school staff.

This is not the tradition of our country. In 1925 the US Supreme Court ruled in favor of both the right of private and religious schools to exist and the right of parents to direct the education of their children. The case was Pierce vs the Society of Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. At the heart of the case was a law passed in Oregon (Oregon Compulsory Education Act of 1922) that required all parents to send their children to public schools. Private and Religious schools were not acceptable. The law was supported by the Masonic Lodge and the KKK in Oregon as they were opposed to the presence of Catholic immigrants and thought that the public schools would properly indoctrinate these children away from "papacy". With the support of the US Bishops the Sisters filed suit to protect their right to operate a school, and they were joined by a private military academy that was also affected by the law.

Two quotes from the Court's decision stand out: the law created "unreasonable interference with the liberty of parents and guardians to direct the upbringing of the children" and "the child is not the mere creature of the state".

Several states (among them California and Minnesota) have passed laws to enforce the same anti-parent policy. It seems that some politicians have forgotten these court cases and the recognition of parental rights. In the name of the most radical gender ideology the state and its schools are dead set to allow students to make life altering decisions apart from or even against their parent's determinations. Odd, a school cannot give a student an aspirin without written parental permission, yet can promote the most profound rejection of God-given biology. The groups promoting such assaults on the family may change their names, but in their philosophy they operate under the same premise. Use the power of the government to accomplish what good people of faith or common sense would reject.

BIBLE STUDY - The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. After all, if Jesus could bring out the very best in someone like Peter, then there is hope for the rest of us! If you would like to take this study from formed.org, please contact Ann Marie Segilia at 717-602-5819 or amsegilia@gmail.com. The study will begin on Wednesday, September 20, 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the St. Bernardine Hall.
